

Australian Government

Government of
South Australia

Support for Whyalla Steelworks employees, contractors and supply chain workers

If you have recently lost your job, expect to be retrenched, or your partner has been affected by job loss in Whyalla, free help is available to help you take your next steps.

What help is available?

Employment support

Job search, applications, interview preparation and connections to jobs.

Training and skills

Free training, skills development, licences and tickets and Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL).

Career advice

Career planning and guidance, self-employment, retirement.

Financial assistance

Income support payments, emergency relief and financial counselling.

Wellbeing services

Access to wellbeing and mental health support for you and your family.

Local events

Free workshops, information sessions and events.

1 SCAN THE QR CODE
Complete the worker support registration form.

2 PERSONALISED SUPPORT
A government employment services consultant will contact you to discuss the supports available.

3 MORE INFORMATION

For details on the range of free services available, scan the small QR code or go to the Support for Whyalla Workers web page.

Remember to return to the 'Support for Whyalla Workers' web page regularly. Details and updates on workshops, events and other services will be published on the page as soon as possible.